

Drop-Inn Honors Ora At Farewell Party

A farewell party for Ora Donoghue, past assistant director of recreation in Greenbelt, was given at the Drop-Inn last Saturday by members of the Drop-Inn and the Advisory Board. Over 265 members and friends attended; also present were Mayor Elizabeth Harrington, City Manager Charles T. McDonald, and members of council.

A musical jewel-box was presented to Miss Donoghue as a token of appreciation by the members of the Drop-Inn. Dancing and refreshments highlighted the evening, which was enhanced by a large cake with "Ora" printed on top.

Gun Club Riflemen Fire Record Score

The number one team of the Greenbelt Gun Club overwhelmed Maryland University's number two team of riflemen last week, firing the best indoor unit score the club has ever achieved. In this prone-kneeling-standing competition, the Greenbelt group averaged 286 out of 300. That is 95 percent of the maximum score. Harold LeRoy led the local team with a 289.

Greenbelt's number two rifle team lost to the US Aggies, last Monday night. Joe Dalis was lead man on the local side.

The indoor season of the Maryland Rifle League, in which Greenbelters have been active for a number of years, closes this month. The Greenbelt club's last match will be on the fourth Thursday. After a few week's pause the outdoor series of matches will commence again, with frequent shooting programs planned for the Greenbelt Target Range.

Bloodmobile Coming Thursday, March 22

The Red Cross Bloodmobile will visit Greenbelt on Thursday, March 22, to collect blood from local citizens. The bloodmobile will be parked in front of the community building from 2 p.m. to 7 p.m. A regular trained staff will be in attendance.

Mrs. Charlene Redd, 71-J Ridge, local recruitment chairman, announces that 165 pints of blood are needed from Greenbelt to fill its quota. Blood from the Red Cross bank is available to all residents in need of blood at no charge, she emphasized. Citizens are reminded that half-pints of blood will also be accepted.

Mrs. Perry Wilkinson, of Hyattsville, blood program chairman for the county, told the Cooperator, "There is a real emergency. We need blood now!"

Blood collected from the Bloodmobile is necessary for three purposes, Mrs. Wilkinson stated: to supply local hospitals; to cooperate with the armed services program; to set up a reserve for the civil defense program.

Want A 1951 Garden? Apply At PHA Office

Applications for garden plots for 1951 garden season will be received at the PHA Management Office over the variety store through Friday, March 16. Application blanks may be obtained upon request by telephone or in person from the switchboard operator, Greenbelt 2031.

Assignment of gardens will be made through the week of March 19. Preference will be given, as far as possible, to those people who cultivated their plots last year and desire the same space for the coming year. Applicants will be notified by mail of their garden assignment.

Sergeant Robert E. Blake Palmer, son of Mrs. Lydalu Palmer of 1-D Eastway, has received a special commendation from the 2nd Marine Division at Camp Lejeune, North Carolina.

The 25-year-old son of our local voice teacher was graduated with the highest grade in the third class of the Division Non-Commissioned Officers Leaders' Course. He was cited for "outstanding qualities of leadership and outstanding ability as a military instructor."

Young Palmer was among the first elementary school pupils in Greenbelt and went on through Greenbelt High. He was on Iwo Jima with the marines in the last war, and in between his stretches of duty has managed to complete three years towards his law degree.

GCS Members Elect Nine To Board, Squabble Over Takoma Drug Store

Nine directors, one of them a resident of Takoma Park, were elected at last night's annual membership meeting of Greenbelt Consumer Services. Elected were Walter J. Bierwagen, George Davidsen, Martin Bickford, Henry Walter, Milton Kramer of Takoma Park, Robert Mitchell, Calman Winegarden, Eleanor Ritchie, and Opie Stage. Kramer, Winegarden, and Mrs. Stage will be "freshman" members.

Action on the proposed further expansion into the Takoma Park shopping center consisted of a "no" vote on a motion by Mike Salzman that the board withdraw its approval of the drug-variety store. Vote was 26 for to 54 against.

The membership also approved the by-law amendment proposed by former treasurer Henry Walter, which reduces the amount allocated yearly to reserves from 20 to 10 percent of earnings.

Total number of votes cast was 178, well over the quorum requirement of 135.

The newly-elected board will hold its organizational meeting tomorrow night at 8 p.m. in the corporation office above the drugstore. Officers will be elected by the board members and committee assignments will be made. All candidates were invited earlier this week to attend the meeting tomorrow night, which will as usual be open to all members of the cooperative.

Nominations and elections committee members elected at last night's meeting are Janet Parker, Dan Lyons, Norman Granims, Robert Bonham, and Paul Kasko.

Main discussion was on Salzman's motion to disapprove the drug-variety store in Takoma Park. Robert Bonham agreed that GCS should not open another drug-variety store, on the basis that experience in Greenbelt has not qualified the cooperative to run such a store successfully. Sam Schwimmer challenged the report of variety store success in Greenbelt, claiming that the figures did not allow for the increased prices during the past year.

Council To Fight Capital Transit On Discontinuance Of Bus Service

By I. J. Parker

Greenbelt's city council passed a resolution Monday night protesting the proposed discontinuance of bus service to Greenbelt by the Capital Transit Company. Councilman Frank Lastner, who introduced the resolution, vehemently declared his opposition to Capital Transit's practice in announcing the discontinuance of service as if it were a final decision. He reminded the council that the transit company must first appear at a public hearing and prove it has valid reasons for ceasing operation of the Greenbelt and other lines.

Women Voters Plan Meeting On Monday

The regular meeting of the Greenbelt Unit of the League of Women Voters will be held at the home of Mrs. Theron Tompkins, 4-C Hillside Rd., at 8:30 on Monday, March 12. The main subject will be United States and the United Nations. Emphasis will be on the collective security responsibilities of the United States.

Local members will prepare their suggestions for next year's County League study and action program, and will hear a report on the hearings on the bill proposed repeal of the controversial Sothoron Bill. Mrs. Mathew Fusillo, local chairman, urges Greenbelters to attend the public hearings on this bill on Saturday, March 10, at 2 p.m. in the County Service Building in Hyattsville.

Women in Greenbelt need not be members of the League or give notice in order to attend its local meetings. All Greenbelt women interested in becoming more informed citizens are urged to attend.

Lions Scheduled For Basketball Tourney

Beginning on Sunday afternoon, April 1, the Greenbelt Lions athletic teams will hold an invitational basketball tournament. The Lions Club is indebted to Charles McDonald, city manager, whose cooperation has made this tournament possible.

The tournament is scheduled to run for four days—Sunday afternoon, April 1; Wednesday night, April 4; semi-finals on Thursday night, April 5; and the finals on Sunday afternoon, April 8.

Teams that have evinced interest in this tourney include the outstanding unlimited teams in this area. Among them are: Arcade-Pontiac, Wash. Gas Co., Malcom-Seates, Kavakos, Mount Rainier, Myron-Cowell, Crown Tile, McKee Pontiac, Standard Press and the Greenbelt Lions Basketball Team, who will be the hosts for the tourney.

The tournament committee will be made up of the following: W. K. Cooper, executive secretary, County YMCA; J. P. Strong, Jr., athletic director, Seat Pleasant Lions Club; C. Cockill, president, Greenbelt Boys Club; W. V. Smith, chairman, tournament committee; R. C. Lindeman, tournament director; P. Runnion, official scorer.

JCC Sponsors Bingo With Valuable Prizes

The Jewish Community Center will hold a Bingo party in the social room of the community building on Saturday, March 10, starting at 8 p.m. Among prizes offered to winners of the Bingo games are brass and china table lamps, mantle clocks, tablecloths, shower curtain sets, a cut-glass platter, a hammered aluminum fruit bowl, an electric toaster, groceries, a sewing basket, and many others. There will also be a door prize, and a special jackpot prize. All Greenbelters are invited to participate. Proceeds will go to the JCC building fund.

Renouncing the long history of Capital Transit's service to Greenbelt, from the time it was subsidized years ago to provide the city with public transportation, Lastner detailed the gradual deterioration of service and the marked increase in fares till the present time. He compared the financial loss claimed by Capital Transit from providing service in Greenbelt, against the large amount of earnings indicated on the financial pages, as an example of Capital Transit's poor reasoning.

Lastner and City Manager Charles McDonald were appointed to represent the city council at the public hearings to be held in Greenbelt.

A bill before the Maryland General Assembly to distribute all revenue from the gasoline taxes solely for use on highway maintenance was considered to be detrimental to the city's interest by the council. The county legislative representative will be notified of the disapproval expressed by the council. The revenue coming from gas taxes now goes into the general fund of most municipalities, including Greenbelt, and its expenditure is not confined to any specific purpose at present.

The Community Chest in Hyattsville is making a survey in Greenbelt on the best method of providing welfare service to the community. City Manager McDonald disclosed. The Chest will recommend to the city the hours and type of welfare worker needed and will participate in helping the community through the Chest program. The survey was begun to set up a method of providing welfare service to residents, after Public Housing Administration refused to permit the city to provide the service under the budget contract.

The council appropriated $550 for the purchase of a 16-millimeter motion-picture projector. The equipment will be used by the recreation department, and also will be made available to all local organizations.

The council will soon begin advertising in the Cooperator as an effort to bring council activities and city affairs closer to Greenbelt citizens. Suggested by the Cooperator reporter, the council expressed approval of the advertising idea and instructed the city-manager to prepare suitable copy.

Mayor Elizabeth Harrington stated she disapproved of the manner of describing traffic violation tickets as "citations." The word had always meant a kind of award for merit, she declared, and she did not see how a speeder can receive a "citation" for breaking the law.

From Bach To Boogie Here In GHS Revue

Greenbelt High School presents "That's Life", a musical revue that will include everything from Bach to Boogie, and Greenbelt High School's best talent.

The dates, which were incorrect in a previous announcement, are March 15 and 16 at the Center school auditorium, 8 p.m. Tickets are available from any GHS student, or at the door on either evening.

Ex-Employee Sues GCS For $150,000 Damages

Abe Chasanow, prominent local attorney, in a statement to the Cooperator, disclosed the fact that he is representing George "Pop" Domchick in a lawsuit claiming $150,000 damages. The suit names GCS and employees of GCS as defendants, and charges defamation of character, alleging libel, slander, and conspiracy to have Domchick fired. Domchick has worked for GCS for nine years, and is well known by Greenbelt shoppers.

Abramowitz Scores At Annual Art Exhibition

This past Sunday, March 4, the Baltimore Museum of Art opened its Annual Art Exhibition of Maryland Artists. Again this year, as in the year past, the Museum has given to Mr. Benjamin Abramowitz its award for "Work in a Modern Direction". The painting entitled "Pace" will be on exhibition with the show for the entire month of March.

These yearly exhibits are extensive displays of creative work in this state. The Baltimore Museum has developed a meaningful program equal to some of the finest in nearby states. For adjacent Greenbelt than can be an occasion for pleasurable participation.

The Museum is easily accessible via Route 1.

members if they planned to take on two elephants without knowing whether they would be eaten out of house and home.

Wallace J. Campbell, executive secretary of the Cooperative League USA, spoke on behalf of "GCS members who live outside Greenbelt," like himself, recalling that GCS was started with help from outside and that there are many prospective members in the new area who will welcome the GCS enterprises. Former resident Donald Cooper, who now lives in that area, also spoke in favor of the expansion.

Adjournment at 11:30 was delayed a few moments by a vote to protest Capital Transit's suspension of bus service to Greenbelt and seven other suburbs.

All Boy's Club Night Planned For March 17

An elaborate entertainment program has been planned for All Boys Club Night, Saturday, March 17, in the Center School Gym. Three basketball games with the Bladensburg Boys Club have been scheduled, Midgets, Juniors and Seniors. Lydalu Palmer's group of popular singers, with Mrs. William Moore as accompanist, have been given a prominent part in the evening's activities.

One of the main features of the evening is the Greenbelt Band and Majorettes. Just to watch the Band and Majorettes in action is a treat in itself, especially to the youngsters.

If present plans are carried out, it should be a night of fast-moving action with not a dull moment during the entire evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Neumann, 6-D Parkway, returned Saturday, March 3, after a two-week vacation trip to Florida. They spent a week in Miami, then drove back by way of the Gulf Coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Isadore Parker (the Cooperator's associate editor and subscription manager), 45-J Ridge, attended the open-house reception for members of the press at the new Washington Post building on Sunday, March 4. Mary Harworth, Bill Gold, and Sonia Stein were only a few of the columnists and reporters who were on hand to greet them. Mr. and Mrs. Parker explored the various departments which were open to all guests and enjoyed themselves immensely, reveling in the hospitality of a big-time newspaper.

The Parker children, Marsha, Sharon, and Naomi, were not to be outdone in the enjoyment of the day. They were dinner guests at the home of a relative, Beth Meyer, at her birthday celebration in Washington.

C. Gerard Buscher has been elected president of the Twenty-first District Democratic Club.

Other new officers are Leland G. Worthington, vice president at large; Mrs. Blanche Longanecker, secretary; Mrs. Oscar A. Zoellner, treasurer; Elmer A. Hodges, sergeant at arms; Mrs. Lawrence J. O'Dea, assistant secretary, and Mrs. Harry W. McNamee, assistant treasurer.

The following have been named as vice-presidents of the three district precincts; George J. Seigel, first; Charles A. Gentile, second; and Mrs. Thomas Freeman, third (Greenbelt).

The club holds its regular monthly meetings the last Thursday of each month in the Branchville Fire House.

The Center School PTA is sponsoring an Eb 'n' Ely square dance to be held in the auditorium on Saturday, March 31, at 8:30 p.m.

Rex Thompson Duter, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Duter, 47-C Ridge, has been appointed probation and parole officer for Wisconsin. He will shortly receive his degree of Master of Arts from the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor.

Hurrah for GCS - PVM Bread Price Reduced With Two Improvements Thrown In

PVM bread is a very worth while product from both the nutritional and economical angle. By using it you can bolster your family's diet without the least bit of effort. It was a bargain at 19 cents a loaf. It is a still greater bargain at 16 cents a loaf. In addition, the slices are going to be thinner from now on and the loaves fresher. The sale of PVM bread and the latest move to increase sales is a feather in the cap of GCS. But then GCS Management Cuts Its Nose To Spite Its Face

You would think that GCS would follow up with promotion of the product. Instead, last Saturday, the first Saturday after the price cut, there were two representatives from County Fair Bakeries in the store that practically prevented people from buying PVM Bread. One was stationed right opposite the PVM Bread shelf and very aggressively sold County Fair Bread, handing out a sewing kit and a balloon in one hand and a loaf of County Fair White Bread in the other. When she saw me with 3 PVM Breads she tried to talk me into substituting County Fair White Bread. In any case the excuse DOLLARS & SENSE, page 4

Co-op Commentary

Noticed anything different in the supermarket this week? Maintenance engineer Harvey Wharton has been installing a complete new set of fluorescent light tubes in the ceiling.

Single tubes have been replaced from time to time as they have burned out, but many tubes have been in continuous service since the market first opened in 1948. These original tubes had darkened in color, and lost much of their original brilliance.

A total of 224 tubes are required for the sales area ceiling, in addition to the canopy and island lights. Tubes were obtained for us at wholesale distributors cost thru our area Co-op Warehouse in Baltimore.

With the new tubes installed, Manager George Spillman forecasts a brighter future.

In planning meals, don't overlook seafood. This most nutritious meat line is also most economical on today's market.

There is little fat and only slight waste from fish fillets. For this reason two pounds of fillet provides as much food as three pounds of roast beef. In addition, the price per pound is generally much less.

To help ease the pinch on food budgets caused by high meat prices, your Co-op meat department is featuring special values in seafood. Our suppliers are cooperating to help us bring you choice seafood at the most competitive prices.

Swordfish steaks, so easy to grill, both delicious and nutritious, have been a best buy recently. Breaded shrimp and the fish fillets have also been attractively priced.

If you are interested in good bread, help spread the word about the Co-op triple-rich bread being sold in our market under the green Smith's P.V.M. label.

P.V.M. stands for "protein, vitamins and minerals", provided in extra large quantities by the soy flour, wheat germ and milk solids used in this loaf, baked of unbleached flour.

The baker is making a 60-day test to see if volume will enable him to make direct deliveries to our store. We have reduced the price to 16c per loaf, which makes PVM a best food buy.

A new slicer is providing thinner slices, and direct delivery means fresher bread. Feed it to your family and get your friends to try it.

Fox Tales

By Sam Fox

Little League Baseball: Managers and some very interested citizens elected William Moore as Commissioner of the Little League. He will serve in the same capacity as Happy Chandler of the Major Leagues. His deputies will be Bill Zerwick and Jules Andrus. The league will start on June 27. The managers will have another meeting this month to draft more players. All boys under 12 years who are interested may contact the Recreation Dept.

Tumbling for Boys: Boys' tumbling classes have been moved to the Center School, Fridays at 3:30. Come and join the class.

Easter Celebration: Get ready for the big Easter Egg Rolling Contest, Egg Hunt and other activities on March 26. There will also be a contest for adults and teen-agers for the best looking Easter Bonnet. There will be prizes for all the children on Easter Monday in the Easter Egg Hunt and Rolling Contest. Drop-Inn: The Annual Drop-Inn ping-pong tournament is now in progress and we hope to announce the winners in two weeks. Also, don't forget the Bake Sale for the Drop-Inn on March 17 at 10 a.m. Rita Snoddy of the Drop-Inn is representing Greenbelt in the IRON LUNG FUND, so all who want Greenbelt to come in first please contribute.

Dramatic Club: The Dramatic Club will put on an Easter play at North End School for the children and parents on Thursday, March 15 at 2 p.m. The name of the play is "The Chocolate Bunny and The Sweetmeat Chick." The boys and girls are working very hard and would appreciate a large audience. The Recreation Department wishes to thank Miss Smith for her wonderful cooperation.

Glee Club: The club has been working on new music with the hope of appearing on WGAY in the near future. The Recreation Department will be glad to make the necessary arrangements for any organization which would like to have the Glee Club sing at affairs or meetings.

Navy Wives Meet

The regular bi-weekly meeting of the Truman Riddle Navy Wives Club was held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Jean Wilkinson, 51-P Ridge. Members volunteered to help with the annual Red Cross campaign here in town. Since the Wednesday meetings at the Center School to roll bandages have been cancelled because of the lack of rollers, members volunteered to do the bandages in their homes. The Red Cross Headquarters picks these bandages up monthly for distribution to the local hospitals.

Members of the Club are taking orders for the candy Easter Eggs which is the Club's annual project to make money for welfare activities. The business meeting was followed by card playing and refreshments.

All wives of present and ex-Navy, Coast Guard, or Navy Reserve men are invited to join the Club. Meetings are held the first and third Tuesday of each month. Anyone desiring further information may call the president, Mrs. Margaret Mullady, at 8581.

Little League Baseball Comes To Greenbelt

By E. DonBullian

A laurel wreath to Sam Fox of the Recreation Department for his efforts in organizing the Little League Baseball in Greenbelt. As far as Sam is concerned it is just another activity in his summer recreation program. For the boys of Greenbelt, however, it is an opportunity to play real Big League baseball, with real uniforms and coaches in addition to a baseball diamond laid out in Big League proportion, under Big League conditions and rules.

The Recreation Department, under the guidance of Sam Fox, is taking advantage of every modern recreational activity. His progressiveness is to be commended. His first problem in promoting the Little League was a financial one. Money was needed to get uniforms, equipment, etc. He overcame this difficulty by getting sponsors who contributed the necessary funds. The recruitment of supervisors and personnel to conduct the Little League was the next phase in its development. This turned out to be no problem at all. Every person contacted willingly gave his services. Once this group was installed the Little League was well on its way. One of the outstanding features of the Little League is its lack of innumerable rules and regulations. The only restriction or limitation is the age of the contestants.

tent of high pressure (my neighbors report a similar reaction) was in bad taste. But coming at the time it did, it indicates, either a lack of coordination or a failure to appreciate the meaning of consumer education. Actually there should have been someone handing out dainty sandwiches made of PVM bread. PVM Bread is especially good as toast.

You will find that toasting PVM bread brings out the flavor. The skim milk in it probably gives it that special crispness.

Co-op Peanut Butter Still Best Buy At Increased Price

The 2 lb. jar of Co-op Peanut butter pointed out as an outstanding buy at 69 cents is now selling for 75 cents. It is still a better buy than anything I have seen elsewhere and far better than the other brands offered at GCS.

Booklet On How To Use Skim Milk Offered By Cooperator

You can pick up a Dept. of Agriculture booklet from the Cooperator Office at 14 Parkway. A limited number of such booklets will be available on Tuesday nights from 8 to 12 p.m. This booklet gives you various recipes which can absorb large quantities of dry skim milk, with little extra work. Among the recipes given are those for griddlecakes, puddings, biscuits, meatloaf, sauces, and omelets.

A trick well worth learning is the making of a large quantity of a dry mix for biscuits, griddlecakes, waffles or puddings which can be stored without refrigeration and used when wanted. These dry mixes would put any commercial mix to shame.

Tips On Using Booklet Offered

First wherever possible (meat loaf, dry mixes) substitute $\frac{1}{4}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ wheat germ for the required flour. Where they give you a choice of amount of skim milk, use the higher amount. Third, disregard the proportions recommended in the booklet on making fluid skim milk. Use the proportions this column has given before, namely $\frac{3}{4}$ cup of powder to 4 cups of water.

Cod Fillet Featured at 35c at GCS
Last weekend GCS featured cod fillet at 35 cents a pound (frozen). This is a good buy, and an item which can help you to keep your food bill down. I should like to see GCS feature such items all week, every week in a frozen cabinet. The difficulty with such items (frozen pork liver, beef heart and frozen fish) is that once they thaw they are hard to keep. If such items could be kept frozen, they could be sold all the time without risk of spoilage, and probably with lower handling costs. It would enable GCS to meet the prices of its competitors without strain, every day in the week.
